ANDERSON, S C., Aug. 26, 1895. Mr. M. M. Mattison, Mgr., Anderson, S. C.-Dear Sir: Your letter of the 17th with the Mutual Benefit, and I know of Yours truly, JOS. J. FRETWELL.

NEWBERRY, S. C., Oct. 1, 1895. Mr. M. M Mattison, Mgr. Mutual Ben efit Life Insurance Co., Anderson, S. C. — Dear Sir: Replying to your favor of recent date, asking my estimate of the value would say that my attention was called to the advantages of owning a policy in this Company about seven years ago by a friend of mine who was receiving 22 per cent dividend annually on a new policy, when I was only getting about 10 per cent on my policy of $3000 in the Equitable Life and about 11 per cent on my $2000 policy in the New York Life. His con tract and mine in these Companies being about the same age. I gave up these poli-cies in the Equitable and New York Life and took out two policies of $ 000 each in the Mutual Benefit Life and the smallest dividend they have paid me was 20 per cent I carry $6000 besides this in other Companies, but I regard the advantages offered by the Mutual Binefit superior to any contract I have ever examined, especially the guaranteed face value, the 30 per cent loan plan, the reputation for economical management, the liberal ex tension features and the large dividends they have credited me with mend it to any one desiring reliable life insurance for the smallest cash outlay.
